

Isaiah

"La Crosse comedy magician"

Based in Holmen | Close-Up Magic | Comedy Magic

Biography

Isaiah is a La Crosse magician whose interactive comedy and magic show puts the audience at the centre of the action rather than keeping them at arm's length. Teachers, event organizers and audience members alike have gone on the record about it, one of them recalling staff "laughing so hard they literally were in tears" and still talking about how the magic could possibly have been done.

The show travels easily: Isaiah can bring his own sound system for crowds of up to 600, and fairs and festivals get walk-around magic to mingle with the crowd alongside the main performance. It suits school events, company parties, community celebrations and outdoor festivals, wherever a room of mixed ages needs to laugh together.
