"Award-winning German magic woven from dance, paper and levitation"

Stage Magic

Biography

Jaana Felicitas & Nikolai Striebel are a German stage-magic partnership whose full-evening production Rhapsody in Magic combines dance, paper manipulation, levitation, silence, fine comedy and cinematic visual storytelling. Their official biographies document a 2023 Baden-Württemberg cabaret prize and individual national and European championship records, while current 2026 convention and theatre schedules confirm continuing performances and workshops. The duo won a Fool Us trophy in 2025 with a transformation-box illusion. Enquiries can route through Striebel's official site, although the sources establish a regional partnership rather than one shared home city or direct duo email.
