

Jack Kenyon

"London close-up and stage magician"

Based in London | Close-Up Magic | Mentalism | Stage Magic

Biography

Jack Kenyon is a London-based magician who works equally in close-up and stage magic, ranging from card magic to mentalism.

Up close, the magic happens at arm's length, in the middle of a group with everyone leaning in; on stage, the same skill opens out for a whole room watching together. Card work sits at the heart of the act, while the mentalism turns to the thoughts and choices of the guests themselves, so the astonishment belongs to the people in the room rather than to a prop. Kenyon performs across a variety of event types, moving between guests at a drinks reception or wedding, or holding the room as the seated centrepiece of a company party.
