

Javier Botía

"FISM champion, mentalist"

Mentalism

Biography

Javier Botía is a Spanish mentalist, broadcaster, author and speaker whose interactive work explores perception, language, behavior and the choices people make. His official site advertises a 2026 world tour, theatre productions, compact event shows, corporate talks, festival acts and a virtual experience across Spain and international markets. Botía won the FISM world championship in mentalism in 2018 and later earned a Fool Us trophy with his comic Spanish-themed act. Current national media appearances and a professional booking route confirm an active career, although the strongest sources do not state a dependable present home city or public direct email.
