Biography

Jay Sankey is a Toronto-based magician, comedian, creator and teacher whose original effects have influenced working performers around the world. His official biography records more than thirty years of corporate, private, trade-show and television work, plus consulting for major magicians and screen productions. Sankey's intimate performances combine sophisticated sleight of hand, audience interaction and a quick comic voice; his teaching platform continues to publish a large catalogue of magic instruction. He also appeared on Penn & Teller: Fool Us. Official phone and email contacts support active private and corporate bookings in Toronto and farther afield.
