

Jeff Evans

"Tacoma-Seattle magician for parties and events"

Based in Tacoma | Close-Up Magic | Comedy Magic | Corporate Events | Kids & Family

Biography

Magician Jeff Evans brings nearly thirty years of performing experience to private parties, corporate banquets, holiday parties and festivals, from Tacoma to Seattle and beyond.

His strolling, stand-up and customized magic shows suit a gathering of a few friends or a corporate banquet for three hundred guests. Guests laugh as much as they wonder: a client from IBM Global Services recalled a jaw that dropped almost every time he did a trick, and laughing hysterically the rest of the time, while Prudential Cornerstone Realtors in Olympia answered with a standing ovation. After a holiday party for Husky Terminal, the hosts fielded numerous phone calls from guests thanking them for the evening. Based in Olympia, Washington, Jeff works throughout the Pacific Northwest.
