

Jeremy Sulzer

"Close-up magician for weddings and parties"

Close-Up Magic | Corporate Events

Biography

Jeremy Sulzer is a close-up magician: his chosen weapon is magic that happens right under the eyes of the guests, inches away, with a maximum of people brought into the trick. Forget women sawed in half and doves - here the magic works with everyday objects: cards, coins, a phone. He moves from group to group during a cocktail hour or dinner, creating a connection between guests as much as astonishment.

Every performance is discussed in advance and tailored to the occasion, from corporate year-end parties, conferences, trade shows and office inaugurations to weddings, bar mitzvahs, christenings, birthdays and family reunions, as well as bars, restaurants and holiday villages. He is available in Paris and Île-de-France, in a specific venue or at home, and can travel further afield.
