

Jersey Jim

"Los Angeles comedy magician"

Based in Los Angeles | Comedy Magic

Biography

Jersey Jim is a Los Angeles comedy magician who mixes magic and comedy in equal measure: as his own billing has it, the magic is a "wow" and the comedy a "howl". Floating Children is among the routines in his show.

When Hollywood needed a magician, Universal Studios and Vince Vaughn cast Jersey Jim in the film Couples Retreat, and Kristin Davis met him at the wrap party. Jack Black called his show "awesome" and said his son was "dying with laughter". That blend of family-friendly fun and quick wit suits private celebrations and company events alike, where guests get magic worth gasping at and jokes worth repeating afterwards.
