

Jimmy Rook

"Orlando comedic magician, seen on AGT"

Based in Orlando | Comedy Magic | Corporate Events | Mentalism

Biography

Orlando comedic magician Jimmy Rook has been performing for over two decades, with a clean, interactive show built on real magic and laugh-out-loud moments. He has appeared on America's Got Talent twice and on the HBO/MAX Second Chance Stage, and Heidi Gardner from SNL called him "better than David Blaine."

In the headline show he pulls people from the crowd and keeps the room engaged from the opening trick to the last bow. He also works table by table with close-up magic that needs no stage and no setup time, and offers a keynote that pairs real magic with a motivational message. Clients include Disney, Marriott, NASCAR and NBC/Peacock, and he plays corporate dinners, college shows, holiday parties and theaters throughout Central Florida.
