

Joe Monti

"Veteran California magic for families, close-up crowds and big stages"

Based in West Hills | Close-Up Magic | Comedy Magic | Stage Magic

Biography

Joe Monti is a veteran California magician offering close-up, family, children's and large stage shows. His official site documents more than thirty years of professional work and thousands of performances, with formats ranging from intimate living-room magic to holiday productions and full stages. Monti has also worked behind the scenes in television magic and won a Fool Us trophy during the program's tenth season. The performer-controlled site publishes a direct phone number and email for active enquiries. It supports statewide availability but does not clearly name one current home city.
