

John Shryock

"Magic Castle and Masters of Illusion magician"

Based in Martinez | Parlour Magic | Stage Magic

Biography

John Shryock has performed at Caesars Palace in Las Vegas and the world famous Magic Castle in Hollywood, and appeared on TV's "Masters of Illusion." His act pairs close-up sleight of hand with comedy, including a routine performed in slow motion to music that still leaves the room laughing and no closer to the secret.

Guests come away remarking that what they saw was "plain impossible," and the material is deliberately clean, built to entertain a whole room without insulting or offending anyone. It is a show where the laughs and the astonishment arrive together, and it works equally well for corporate events and private parties.
