

Jon Finch

"Indianapolis mentalist and mind reader"

Based in Cincinnati | Close-Up Magic | Corporate Events | Mentalism | Virtual Shows

Biography

Master Mentalist Jon Finch uses no stagecraft, wears no costume and needs no props. The magic happens in the audience's hands, making participants central to every astonishing effect, and his blend of psychological illusion, suggestion and showmanship leaves rooms questioning what they have just seen. He reveals thoughts and predicts actions in performances shrouded in mystery and laced with comedy.

Finch performs close-up magic and mentalism for corporate events, weddings, cocktail parties and similar adult gatherings across Indianapolis, Chicago, Cincinnati and Louisville. He also ranks among the world's busiest virtual mentalists, having performed for most Fortune 100 companies; his virtual act, "Miracle Man", is known for full interactivity, offbeat comedy and team-bonding value, with clients spanning the U.S., Canada, the UK, Germany and Belgium.
