

Jorge Blass

"Award-winning Spanish magician"

Based in New York, NY | Close-Up Magic | Stage Illusion | Stage Magic

Biography

Award-winning Spanish magician Jorge Blass holds the Stage Magician of the Year award, known as the "Oscars of magic", and blends tradition and innovation into illusions built on stunning visual effects and cutting-edge technology.

His stage work spans several full productions: FLIPAR; ILUSIONARTE, a 75-minute journey to the purest essence of illusion where the audience plays, fantasizes and participates; Palabra de Mago, a reflection on the fascinating world of magicians; and Birlibirloque, which fuses his magic with the music of Nacho Mastretta and his band. Impossible levitations, appearances, disappearances and interactive illusions make the audience the protagonist, in shows for all audiences from a magician who has captivated Hollywood stars like David Copperfield.
