

Joseph LaRosa

"Modern mentalist and magician"

Corporate Events | Mentalism | Stage Illusion

Biography

Joseph LaRosa brings world-class mentalism and magic to high-end corporate events, cocktail hours and private gatherings, performing under a simple banner: "Magic for Today's Taste".

Modern by nature, suave and comfortable in his presentation, he has an easy-going, regular-guy flow that puts everyone at ease and lets him fit right in with the group. A client of five years describes a "never ending arsenal of illusions" and calls him "the best illusionist in the NEPA area, hands down". The aim is not simply to perform magic but to create experiences that make people truly Believe Impossible, which makes him a natural fit for receptions, company parties and private celebrations where the entertainment should feel sophisticated rather than staged.
