

Josephine Lee

"Britain's Got Talent winner, illusionist"

Corporate Events | Stage Illusion | Stage Magic

Biography

Josephine Lee is a British stage magician and illusionist with an active performer-controlled website and direct professional email. Her career has centered on polished visual illusion for theatre, television and major live audiences, including prominent appearances on Britain's Got Talent and Penn & Teller: Fool Us. The official site currently positions her for professional contact but exposes very little indexed detail about specific show formats, service territory, current public dates or home base. FindMagic can publish a concise, verified profile while leaving those operational details open for direct confirmation rather than extending older press claims.
