

Judge Brown

"Award-winning magician Judge Brown"

Close-Up Magic

Biography

Judge Gary Brown performs and writes as Judge Brown, combining close-up magic with deep research into conjuring history and the craft of invention. His official site maintains original routines, books, articles, videos and teaching material, while a 2026 professional interview confirms continuing activity and identifies him as a United States district judge in New York. Brown brought one of his original ideas to Penn & Teller: Fool Us and has lectured within the magic community. Research did not find a general event-booking offer, so the profile should not imply broad private or corporate availability.
