

Keith Brown

"Award-winning magician and TEDx speaker"

Close-Up Magic | Corporate Events

Biography

Award-winning magician, entertainer and public speaker Keith Brown has been in demand across the globe since 2002, with performances in over 22 countries and a recent turn as a TEDx speaker.

His approach to magic is built on engagement: audiences are drawn into the experience rather than held at arm's length, and they leave buzzing, still talking about it weeks and months later. Guests who arrived indifferent to magic tend to be the ones won over first. His show 110% Wizard plays the Saskatoon Fringe, and Keith works regularly at corporate functions, private parties and educational institutions, where planners bring him in to build the energy and atmosphere of the room and to keep guests entertained throughout.
