

Kenny Spade

"San Francisco Bay Area magician"

Corporate Events

Biography

Kenny Spade has spent more than a decade captivating audiences, bringing magic to events of all kinds and to people from every walk of life. Hailing from the San Francisco Bay Area, his fascination with the art began in childhood, sparked by legendary performers David Copperfield and Jeff McBride, and grew into a lifelong dedication to illusion.

Today Kenny blends experience, charisma and world-class inspiration into magical moments that leave lasting impressions long after the applause. His entertainment is built for all ages, so celebrations with several generations in the room find plenty to enjoy together. Weddings, company parties, galas and private events all suit a performer whose decade of work has been shaped by audiences of every kind.
