

Kent Axell

"Mind Reader and Magician"

Based in Las Vegas | Close-Up Magic | Corporate Events | Mentalism | Stage Illusion

Biography

Kent Axell is an illusionist and mentalist whose work moves easily between sleight of hand and mind reading, built for the moments when guests are standing shoulder to shoulder with a drink in hand.

For mingling and cocktail hours he works close, performing right in front of the guests so the magic happens inches from their eyes. For larger groups he presents a full magic show designed to hold a whole room, and for remote teams and virtual gatherings he offers interactive online shows that keep everyone involved rather than merely watching. It is an approach that suits corporate events, conferences and celebrations where the aim is to engage, entertain and amaze a crowd that arrived expecting far less.
