

Kyle Eschen

"Deadpan close-up magic that tests attention, assumptions, and human timing."

Close-Up Magic | Comedy Magic | Stage Magic

Biography

Kyle Eschen is an American magician, stand-up comedian and speaker known for deliberate awkwardness, original sleight of hand and unusually cerebral humor. His official site offers tailored stage shows for corporate and private audiences as well as keynotes using magic and cognitive science to examine blind spots in judgment. Eschen has appeared on America's Got Talent, Masters of Illusion, the World Magic Awards and Penn & Teller: Fool Us, and his TEDx talk on inattentional blindness reached a large international audience. A performer-controlled contact page supports bookings, while his current home city and direct public email remain unstated.
