

Kyle Littleton

"Atlanta close-up comedy magic with a playful, improvisational edge."

Based in Atlanta | Close-Up Magic | Comedy Magic

Biography

Kyle Littleton is an Atlanta magician, comedian and producer whose work blends close-up magic with alternative comedy and deliberate absurdity. His performer-controlled site offers Secret Aisle, a sold-out underground variety concept that can now be booked as a private, house or corporate package featuring curated magicians, comedians and unusual acts. Littleton also appeared on Penn & Teller: Fool Us and remains active in magic creation and performance. A direct email, phone number and enquiry form support current event bookings. Because the site describes the show's Atlanta origin rather than an explicit residence, the city is treated as a professional base.
