

Larry Wilson

"Emmy-nominated comedy magician"

Based in Martinez | Close-Up Magic | Comedy Magic | Corporate Events | Mentalism

Biography

Emmy-nominated comedy magician Larry Wilson built his One Man Wonder Show out of the stage act he presented on television hundreds of times: rapid-fire sleight of hand, mind-reading and mentalism, wrapped in comedy and loaded with audience participation. It is self-contained, so it sets up quickly and plays big without a big production budget.

Guests might see astonishing sleight of hand happen in their own hands as Larry strolls the room, or the full theatrical spectacle of his Grande Illusions show, in which a woman floats into the air and vanishes, a man appears from a cage of fire and his assistant is cut into sixths. The Hollywood Reporter called him "the best rehearsed, tightest and most consistently funny act" - a reassuring choice for corporate events and celebrations alike.
