

Laser Kiwi

"Wellington surreal circus where olives, juggling and joyful nonsense collide"

Based in Wellington | Comedy Magic | Stage Magic

Biography

Laser Kiwi is the Wellington surreal sketch circus trio of brothers Zane and Degge Jarvie and aerialist Imogen Stone. Their fast-changing shows combine juggling, physical theatre, aerial skill, audience games, magic and deliberately strange comedy. The group has toured international festivals, earned major fringe awards and won a Fool Us trophy with an olive-centered act. Current 2026 reporting documents their new production Everybody Knows, while a New Zealand entertainment agency offers material from short bespoke appearances to full-length shows for festivals, companies and private events. The available booking route is agency-controlled rather than a verified performer-owned site.
