

LD Madera

"Miami improv magician"

Based in Miami | Mentalism

Biography

LD Madera is an improviser and magician who creates unforgettable experiences through storytelling and magic. With over 20 years of captivating performances, he inspires creativity and connection at events, entertainment venues, and personal growth gatherings.

Born and raised in Miami, FL, LD's passion for entertaining began early, with performances ranging from singing at First Communion to comedy sketches in class. His skills as a performer were honed during his teenage years at Coconut Grove Children's Theater under the mentorship of Corky Dozier. After graduating from Barry University with a BA in Arts focusing on Theater, LD has appeared in various stage productions and continues to redefine storytelling through his dynamic shows.
