

Léa Kyle

"French quick-change artistry designed, sewn and transformed at impossible speed"

Based in Bordeaux | Stage Illusion | Stage Magic

Biography

Léa Kyle is a French quick-change magician and costume designer from the Bordeaux region. Her official biography traces a professional career beginning in 2018, a Fool Us trophy in 2020, a top-five finish on America's Got Talent, a Las Vegas residency and touring work with The Illusionists. In 2025 she won the FISM world title in general magic. Kyle designs and constructs her own transformations, combining couture training with fast visual staging, and also offers artistic and technical consulting. A manager phone number and direct email support current international bookings.
