

Lee Cole

"Comedy magician and pickpocket"

Based in West Des Moines | Comedy Magic

Biography

Lee Cole calls the act Magicomedy, and it lands in hotels and country clubs from Minnesota to Texas and from California to New York, rooms that do everything they can to make an evening elegant. Then the CEO's tie gets cut, someone's hundred-dollar bill burns up, and watches and purses quietly go missing.

Playfulness and spontaneity give the show the feel of a stand-up comic's, built out of everything and everyone in the room. It isn't about tricks, it's about people: the real value of live entertainment in a digital world is shared experience, the kind where guests see and are seen. Top cruise lines, world-class casinos, Fortune 500 companies and comedy clubs as far away as Australia already know the act.
