Biography

Willi Auerbach, performing as MAGIC MAN, is a Waldkirch-based German illusionist, emcee and magic designer. His current official hub connects full-time live performance, an artist agency and a workshop developing custom effects and stage apparatus. Programs range from compact private and corporate magic to evening-length grand illusion productions, including his signature flying illusion. Direct address, phone and email details confirm active bookings, while 2026 updates document ongoing professional work. Auerbach's Fool Us appearance brought his large-scale visual approach to American television after national and international competition experience.
