

Magician Raymond

"Seattle interactive family magician"

Based in Seattle | Comedy Magic | Kids & Family | Mentalism | Stage Magic

Biography

Magician Raymond has spent over 35 years honing his skill as a magical entertainer, performing in hundreds of shows for thousands of people. His unique interactive magic blends illusions, mind reading, comedy and theater, and each show is different depending on the audience and venue.

Everyone gets involved, and the act is built around bringing out the joy and wonder in each of the audience members, with shows geared for adults, children and families alike. Raymond has performed as a resident magician at theme parks and theaters and toured doing school assembly shows. He now presents a 45 minute Family Magic Show at the Seattle Center along with public magic shows at various theaters in Washington State, and is available for private and public events.
