

Matt Daniel-Baker

"International mind reader and mentalist"

Mentalism

Biography

Mind reader and mentalist Matt Daniel-Baker has performed in over 30 different countries, for many of the best-known companies and best-loved celebrities, Justin Timberlake among them.

His act is pure mind reading and mentalism: thoughts uncovered and choices anticipated in front of the very people who made them, so the astonishment belongs to the guests rather than to a prop or a box. Celebrities who have seen him perform have added glowing quotes of their own. With a track record spanning dozens of countries and a client list drawn from the corporate world, Matt Daniel-Baker is well suited to company parties, hospitality events and private celebrations where the entertainment needs to travel light and hold a whole room.
