

Matt Matthews

"Connecticut family comedy magician"

Based in Wallingford | Comedy Magic | Corporate Events

Biography

Matt Matthews is a Connecticut comedy magician whose family-friendly show is built to play to children and adults at once, and more than 100 five-star reviews say it does.

Objects disappear, reappear and transform, volunteers join him on stage to help with the magic, everyone is taught one of his favourite tricks, and there are far too many stinky gym socks along the way. He brings everything he needs, including his own tables. Matt works birthday parties in the backyard and company events in hotel ballrooms, and has played libraries, an after school STEAM programme and a Breakfast with Santa; he also leads a magic learning workshop teaching beginner tricks with household objects.
