Close-Up Magic | Comedy Magic | Mentalism

Biography

Michael Gee is a British magician, mind reader and sleight-of-hand performer whose Fool Us routine turned a small toy car named Henry into a memorable comic character. Performer-authored material from 2018 described more than twenty years of experience, Magic Circle membership, television work and availability for private and corporate events. Contemporary reporting placed him in Elstree at that time and named michaelgeemagic.com as his official site. Research could not verify that the website, location or booking offer remains current, so this profile should stay non-bookable pending fresh confirmation.
