

Michael Karl

"Award-winning mentalist"

Corporate Events | MC / Event Host | Mentalism | Stage Magic

Biography

Michael Karl is a psychological illusionist and mentalist offering performance and speaking for corporations, conferences, colleges and cruise audiences. His official site describes a career blending mind reading, audience participation and modern stage presentation, with professional credits ranging from major entertainment venues to work as an official magician for the Orlando Magic. A public phone number and direct email support current enquiries across the United States and internationally. Research did not establish one dependable current home city, so Orlando should remain a client credit rather than a residence claim.
