

Miranda Allen

"Award-winning escape artist"

Stage Magic

Biography

Miranda Allen is a Canadian actor, creator, consultant, variety artist and escapologist whose work brings physical escape into contemporary theatre. Her official biography records performances in eighteen countries, original escape development and a Penn & Teller: Fool Us wine-barrel routine that Penn called perfect. Allen's practice connects high-risk spectacle with character, vulnerability and storytelling rather than presenting escape as a detached stunt. The performer-controlled site establishes her professional identity and international work, but research did not confirm a current home city, public calendar or explicit general booking process.
