

Mitch Williams

"Award-winning sleight-of-hand corporate magician"

Close-Up Magic | Corporate Events

Biography

Award-winning magician Mitch Williams trained under world-famous magician, Neil Foster, mastering intricate sleight of hand and stage showmanship, then set about developing his own original material and unique style. Peers came to know him as a "magician's magician", and his honors include the International Brotherhood of Magicians Stage Award of Merit, the Bill Baird Award of Excellence in Sleight of Hand, and the Society of American Magicians Stage Award and Gold Medal.

He has been recognized as one of the favorite performers at the Magic Castle in Hollywood, and his credits run from Harvey's Casino, Lake Tahoe to the It's Magic show at the Variety Arts Center in Los Angeles. For more than twenty years he has brought his memorable programs to corporate events and other gatherings, from Beverly Hills to New York City.
