"British theatrical magic where science, stories and silliness collide"

Comedy Magic | Stage Magic

Biography

Morgan & West are British performers Rhys Morgan and Robert West, a long-running duo creating family-friendly theatre from magic, science, storytelling and elaborate comic characters. Their current official site lists touring productions including Unbelievable Science, Massive Magic Show for Kids & Childish Grown-Ups and a Christmas magic show. They have performed across the United Kingdom and internationally, and appeared twice on Fool Us, fooling Penn and Teller once. The site provides an active professional route, though it does not state one dependable current home city or a direct public email.
