

Mortenn Christiansen

"World Champion Magician"

Based in Horsens | Close-Up Magic | Comedy Magic | Parlour Magic | Stage Magic

Biography

Mortenn Christiansen is a Danish magician and comedy performer whose original approach has earned him two major FISM titles. He won First Prize in Comedy Magic at the 2022 FISM World Championship of Magic in Québec, then returned in 2025 to win First Prize in Parlour Magic in Torino.

Christiansen's performances combine strong magic with comedy, inventive methods and an unconventional performance style. He is also an active creator and teacher of magic, with original effects and masterclasses released for magicians internationally. His work ranges from stage and parlour performance to card magic, with an emphasis on creating routines that are both deceptive and entertaining.
