

Nick Roy

"Award-winning magician, Chicago"

Based in Chicago | Corporate Events

Biography

International award-winning magician Nick Roy has been honing his craft since the early age of 8, and now brings thousands of performances and dozens of TV appearances to corporate rooms and private celebrations alike - his magic even landed him a spot as a contestant on ABC's The Bachelorette.

His approach is hilarious and hard-hitting, shaped to fit an audience of 20 or 2,000, in a living room or at a trade show. Clients call his repertoire world-class, and rebook him for the way he engages a highly educated and sophisticated audience. Sales meetings, client appreciation dinners and weddings all sit comfortably within his range, each one built around the guests in the room.
