"Germany's Master Magician"

Close-Up Magic | Comedy Magic | Stage Magic

Biography

Nikolai Striebel is a German magician and European champion in general magic whose visual work gives ordinary objects, especially paper airplanes, an imaginative theatrical life. His current official site offers public tickets and event enquiries, while the German Magic Circle lists gala, hosting, stage and close-up formats for corporate and private audiences throughout Germany. Client material confirms performance in both German and English, with comedy and storytelling supporting the visual effects. A direct public email supports bookings, although one dependable current home city is not stated.
