

Norman Ng

"Maine magic shaped by decades of campus touring"

Based in Hollis Center | Close-Up Magic | Corporate Events | Stage Illusion | Stage Magic

Biography

Norman Ng is a Maine entertainer and sleight-of-hand magician with more than thirty-three years of performance across the United States and Canada. His official biography records ten international campus tours, work in forty-eight states and a live audience total exceeding half a million people, alongside a Fool Us appearance. Ng also built a successful vintage-tractor business before closing it in 2025 and now runs Hidden Grace Farm with his family in Hollis Center. A current performer-controlled enquiry form supports professional work, though detailed show packages are not fully indexed.
