

Patrick Folkerts

"Award-winning Hamburg magician"

Based in Hamburg | Stage Magic

Biography

Patrick Folkerts is a Hamburg magician, performance artist and maker whose work moves between theatrical conjuring, art installation and finely engineered apparatus. His current project Patrick's Minibar hides a miniature cocktail bar and live bartender inside an old refrigerator, creating a bookable encounter for cultural events, companies and private celebrations. Folkerts has performed on German stages, in Las Vegas and on American television, including Fool Us. The performer-controlled site explicitly identifies Hamburg as home and provides a current request-for-quote route, while no direct public email is indexed.
