

Piero Venesia

"Turin close-up where theatre, mime and clown reveal ordinary wonder"

Based in Turin | Close-Up Magic | Parlour Magic

Biography

Piero Venesia is a Turin-born Italian illusionist and actor specializing in close-up magic. His current show-company biography describes work that blends illusion, theatre, mime and clown, using reduced distance between performer and spectator to discover the extraordinary inside ordinary objects. Venesia trained through Turin's Circolo Amici della Magia, where he has also taught fellow members, and performs across Italy. Official 2025 FISM results award him second prize at the world championship, confirming current international standing. A performer-controlled social hub provides contact, though no standalone booking email is indexed.
