"America's Got Talent semifinalist magician"

Based in St. Cloud | Close-Up Magic | Comedy Magic | Stage Magic

Biography

Master Magician Malcolm "Puck" Puckering is an America's Got Talent semifinalist - the first African American magician to make it to the semifinals on the show. He has been featured on Penn & Teller's Fool Us, and performs regularly at Monday Night Magic, New York's longest running magic show, and at the world famous Magic Castle in Hollywood.

Puck's magic carries a story with it. Introduced to magic by his adopted father, he lost him at fourteen and spent nearly four years in juvenile correctional facilities before a long forgotten childhood hobby led him back. That second chance became a career spanning well over thirty years. Speaker, magician and author, he infuses that trials-to-triumph story with his special brand of magic in a keynote geared toward uplifting youth.
