"Comic grand illusion that playfully rewrites familiar stage roles"

Comedy Magic | Stage Magic

Biography

Ramó & Alegría are a contemporary European magic duo performing comedic grand illusion with family warmth and a deliberate reversal of familiar stage stereotypes. Their official page identifies the members publicly as Ramó and Alegría and documents appearances at international festivals, television programs and championship events. Large-scale illusions, physical comedy, invention and character interplay form the core of the act, which has appeared twice on Fool Us. The performer-controlled site supports current professional activity and event enquiries, though it does not publish the members' full legal names, one home city or a direct booking email.
