

Ray Lum

"Las Vegas illusion crafted with cinematic polish and psychology"

Based in Las Vegas | Close-Up Magic | Mentalism | Stage Magic

Biography

Ray Lum is a Las Vegas illusionist and mind reader whose contemporary style combines precise sleight of hand, psychological illusion and cinematic showmanship. His current official site offers television, corporate, private, theatre and special-appearance formats, with close-up work and larger visual pieces represented in the performance gallery. Lum's Fool Us appearance is featured prominently alongside a direct invitation to book. The performer-controlled site confirms current professional activity and a Las Vegas base, although it routes enquiries through a form rather than publishing a direct booking email or detailed public schedule.
