

Rebecca Spectre

"Chicago magician and Tarot reader"

Based in Chicago | Close-Up Magic | Corporate Events | Kids & Family

Biography

A professional Chicago magician and Tarot reader, Rebecca Spectre works in the close-up tradition \, and mingling magic that happens inches from the guests. She takes that quintessentially Chicago style to weddings, galas and corporate events, including Shure and Google.

Her magic shows run 15 or 30 minutes and are filled with interactive close-up magic, sized for company team happy hours, backyard barbecues and bachelorette parties. The Tarot readings last five to ten minutes and stay warm, empowering, light and inclusive rather than religious or spooky, offering guests a fun new angle on things; for the Tarot enthusiasts, Rebecca pulls a three-card spread plus a summary card from the Rider-Waite Smith deck. Above all, her magic celebrates laughter and connection, bringing friends and family together over wondrous moments.
