"Mentalist, magician and Curator of Curiosities"

Based in Las Vegas | Corporate Events | Mentalism | Parlour Magic

Biography

Remy Connor is more magician than mentalist and, in his own words, definitely more mentalist than magician: a storyteller and Curator of Curiosities whose act runs on friendly charisma as much as on method.

Audiences meet a performer well versed in all types of magic and even sideshow acts, one who engages a crowd with ease and wins over hearts and minds with a personal blend of magic, humour and wit. His stage show The Road Scholar plays at The Box 2.0, and the clients who book him for corporate events describe someone who adapts his performance to exactly what the occasion needs, and who brings the WOW factor to a gathering. A natural addition to company parties, galas and private celebrations.
