

Richard Forget

"Award-winning magician, Toronto"

Based in Toronto | Stage Magic

Biography

Richard Forget is a Toronto illusionist whose international stage work combines modern technology, visual scale and personal stories gathered through travel. His official site documents performances across Canada, the United States, Europe and Asia, including live television and appearances before royalty. Forget's Fool Us performance sits within a career of large theatrical productions and innovative illusion design. The performer-controlled site names Toronto as his base and provides a direct enquiry form, supporting current professional availability, although some pages still contain template contact text and no dependable direct booking email is published.
