

Richard Turner

"Legendary card mechanics paired with an extraordinary life story"

Close-Up Magic | Corporate Events | Stage Magic

Biography

Richard Turner is a renowned card mechanic, magician and motivational speaker whose performances pair astonishing technical skill with an account of adapting to blindness. His current official site offers speaker and performer programs, products, a podcast and the one-man play Dealt, while a professional speakers bureau confirms event availability. Turner's card-table work emphasizes gambling demonstrations, disciplined practice and tactile precision rather than conventional visual cues. His life is the subject of the documentary Dealt, and his Fool Us appearance earned a trophy. Research supports international bookings but not one dependable current home city.
