

Rick Lax

"Prolific practical magic designed for modern hands and screens"

Close-Up Magic | Mentalism

Biography

Rick Lax is an American magician, author and digital creator known for original close-up effects, mentalism and large-scale viral video production. Penguin Magic maintains an extensive current catalogue of his inventions and presentations, ranging from card and coin plots to memory demonstrations, predictions and visual everyday-object magic. His Fool Us appearance earned a trophy, and his creative work continues to circulate widely within the magic marketplace. Research did not locate a working performer-owned site, public live-show calendar, direct booking route or dependable current home base, so no general event availability should be inferred from product activity alone.
