

Rmax Goodwin

"Masters of Illusion mentalist"

Based in Los Angeles | Close-Up Magic | Mentalism

Biography

Self-taught from the age of six, Rmax Goodwin was just 15 when he became one of the youngest performers ever invited to the Magic Castle in Hollywood, the exclusive club for magicians and mentalists. He has been featured repeatedly on Fox's Masters of Illusion and on MLB on Fox, and as a consultant his creations have appeared on ESPN, HBO and CNBC.

Rmax works as both mentalist and sleight-of-hand expert, with a dry wit and charming banter rather than corny humour. Close-up effects happen in guests' own hands, making his magic and mind reading a natural icebreaker for a cocktail hour or reception, while his interactive stage show suits after-dinner entertainment. He is a popular choice at Fortune 500 and celebrity events, and also performs a virtual mind reading show for remote audiences.
